THE CAVE TEMPLES OF ELEPHANTA ISLAND

Description

An adventurous tour to the caves of Elephanta Island, where we can admire the bas-relief statues sculpted in stone that recount Indian myths and legends, the perfect excursion for those who wish to learn more about the Hindu religion.

What we will see

- Elephanta Island
- Elephanta Caves
- Gateway of India

What we will do

- We leave the port by coach and head towards the Gateway of India where we board the ferry that takes us to the cave temples of Elephanta island.
- When we reach the island, we have to walk for about 20 minutes or take a 5 minute train ride to where the caves are located and then climb up 120 steps to the entrance of the caves.
- In the caves we can admire the temples carved out of the rock that date back to the 8th century AD. The bas-relief statues that are sculpted in the stone are brought to life as the guides recount the Indian myths and legends that animate them. The cave carvings are centred around the life of Shiva the destroyer. The most impressive ones, however, are dedicated to the Trimurti of Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva: the creator, the preserver and the destroyer.
- We return to the Gateway of India by ferry and then board the coach which takes us back to the ship.
- The ferry boat crossing to Elephanta Island takes approximately 1 hour.
- The itinerary may be subject to change.
- There is only one train to the Elephanta caves; in the unlikely event that it is not running we have to walk for 20-25 minutes before we can climb the 120 steps to the entrance to the caves. The same applies on the way back. Comfortable shoes with rubber soles are therefore recommended.

DISCOVER MUMBAI'S HISTORICAL AND ARTISTIC HERITAGE BY WALKING

Description

In Mumbai every building has its own history which contributes to that of the whole city. We explore these buildings in the narrow streets of Mumbai's Fort district and remain fascinated by the markets and Bazaars along the Colaba Causeway.

What we will see

- General Post Office Building
- Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Terminus
- Municipal Corporation Building
- St. Xavier College
- Western Railway Headquarters Building
- St. Thomas Cathedral
- Flora Fountain
- University of Mumbai
- High Court Building
- David Sassoon Library
- Army and Navy Building
- Jehangir Art Gallery
- Prince of Wales Museum
- Gateway of India
- Shopping at Colaba Causeway or Mangaldas Bazaar and Mahatma Jyotibha Phule Market
- Dhobhi Ghat, Cuffe Parade

What we will do

- We set off by coach to Mumbai's so-called "Fort" district. Although it is difficult today to imagine a fort in Mumbai, the British built one here, the walls of which no longer exist, although various monuments survive that bear witness to the remains of a bygone era. As the Fort district is very large, part of our excursion is conducted on board the coach. We'll see the General Post Office Building, the Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Terminus, once known as the Victoria Terminus, the Municipal Corporation Building, St. Xavier College and the Western Railway Headquarters Building.
- When we arrive at St. Thomas Cathedral, we leave the coach to visit the inside of the church.
- We leave the cathedral to enjoy an interesting walk through the district, during which we will pass in front of the Flora Fountain, the graceful stone fountain dedicated to the Roman goddess. We then pass by the University of Mumbai and the Supreme Court Building, built in Gothic style. We can then admire the David Sassoon Library, the Army and Navy Building, the Jehangir Art Gallery and the Prince of Wales Museum before ending our tour in style at the famous Gateway of India, the city's symbol.
- Before returning to the ship we can indulge in some shopping on the Colaba Causeway.
- From here we head to the Mahatma Jyotibha Phule Market, also known as Crawford Market, where locals buy fruit, flowers and animals all under the same roof.

- For more shopping before returning to the port we can visit the Mangaldas Bazaar where we can find all sorts of products at very reasonable prices, from electronics to cars and fabrics.

HIGHLIGHTS OF COCHIN
Description

HIGHLIGHTS OF COCHIN

What we will see

- Fort Kochi
- St. Francis Church
- Chinese fishing nets
- Local fish market
- Santa Cruz Basilica
- Mattancherry
- Dutch Palace
- Jew Street
- Synagogue

What we will do

- Our visit to Kochi begins in the district where the first settlers were Portuguese: Fort Kochi, home to various vestiges of the colonial era such as St. Francis Church, the oldest European church in India, built by the Portuguese.
- We then visit many more fascinating attractions, including the Chinese fishing nets, a powerful symbol of the centuries-old Chinese influence on this coast and the famous local fish market where locals eat freshly caught fish that has just been cooked.
- We then go on to visit Santa Cruz Basilica whose foundations were laid in 1505, again by the Portuguese.
- Arriving at the Mattancherry district we can admire the Dutch Palace, built by the Portuguese in 1555 and renovated by the Dutch in 1663. The building is renowned for the frescoes featuring scenes from the Ramayana and the Puranas legends linked to Hindu gods.

- Another community that has left its mark on this city is the Jewish community, which has a street named in its honour. Here we admire the typical houses and the shops of various kinds, from grocers to antiques shops. At the end of the street is the Synagogue, the oldest in the entire Commonwealth. It was built in 1568 and is famous for its hand-painted blue Cantonese majolica tiles.
- Some coaches are not air conditioned.
- We recommend wearing comfortable shoes.
- Dress code that is appropriate for the places of worship to be visited is recommended.

- Places on this excursion are limited. We recommend booking early to avoid disappointment.

- We inform our guests that buses do not meet the European standards: they are small, without microphone and air conditioning. Adverse traffic conditions could alter the duration of the excursion. The streets may not be tarred.?

Cochin
HERITAGE TRAIL - A WALK THROUGH FORT COCHIN
Description

A real step back in time in Fort Cochin, where we admire the still visible signs of the presence of Portuguese, Dutch and British, which have granted to this magical place its fascinating character.

What we will see

- St. Francis Church
- Santa Cruz Basilica
- Parade Ground
- Chinese fishing nets
- Dutch cemetery.
- Private colonial style dwellings
- Brunton Boatyard Hotel or Koder House.

What we will do

- Our walk through the Fort Kochi district first takes us to two magnificent examples of churches built by the Portuguese: St. Francis Church, the oldest European church in India, and Santa Cruz Basilica.
- We then move on to the Parade Ground, a large park historically used first by the Portuguese to store their armaments and then by the Dutch and the British for parades and military training.
- From Kochi's seafront we admire a powerful symbol of the centuries-old Chinese influence on this coast, the Chinese fishing nets.
- Another testimony of the colonial era that we will visit is the Dutch Cemetery, the oldest European cemetery in India, set in a garden of flowers and palm trees, parallel to the beach.

- When we are almost at the end of our walk, we pass several private colonial style dwellings with Indo-European architectural features, such as the Pierce Leslie Bungalow, Koder House, Vasco House and the Old Harbour House.
- At the end of our fascinating walk, there is nothing better than a stop at the Brunton Boatyard Hotel or Koder House to enjoy some cool shade on the seafront before returning to the quay.
- The excursion involves lots of walking, it is therefore recommended to wear comfortable shoes.
- Some coaches are not air conditioned.
- We recommend wearing comfortable shoes.
- Dress code that is appropriate for the places of worship to be visited is recommended.

- Places on this excursion are limited. We recommend booking early to avoid disappointment.

KERALA CULTURE: KUMBALANGI VILLAGE TOUR

Description

An excursion designed for those who love to discover new and fascinating cultures, which will make us live the experience of a delicious cruise along the waters of Kumbalangi and then it will take us to discover the traditions of this quiet and peaceful village, where the inhabitants' survival depends only on the nature.

What we will see

- Cruise to discover local fishing techniques
- Village of Kumbalangi
- Everyday village activities

- Lunch with local specialities
- Chinese fishing nets
- Kolkali performance
- Rickshaw ride
- Shopping at Mattancherry
- Spectacular countryside with backwaters and fish farms

What we will do

- We travel from the port to the village of Kumbalangi, the starting point for our enchanting cruise, which offers an opportunity to observe the various local fishing techniques including veesuvala and padal.
- After leaving the boat we head for the village, where we are divided into small groups to watch the locals going about their day to day business: catching crabs and fish, preparing coconut milk punch, processing shellfish and coconut fibres, weaving rugs and oola madayal (special coconut leaves woven to create a roof covering), and making fishing nets.
- For lunch we enjoy local specialities in an open-air area with a view of the Chinese fishing nets resting on the surface of the water. We can see the way these nets are used and how the fishing system known as papu mari works.
- Such an exciting day would not be complete without a Kolkali performance, a traditional dance in which the dancers move in a circle, singing and dancing and tapping each other with sticks.
- And that is not all: after the performance we enjoy a brief rickshaw ride through the narrow streets of the village
- Our trip has come to an end and we return to Kochi, travelling through spectacular countryside with backwaters and fish farms on either side of the road.
- Some coaches are not air conditioned.
- We recommend wearing comfortable shoes.

- Places on this excursion are limited. We recommend booking early to avoid disappointment.

- We inform our guests that buses do not meet the European standards: they are small, without microphone and air conditioning. Adverse traffic conditions could alter the duration of the excursion. The streets may not be tarred.

*CochinBACKWATERS CRUISE- HALF DAY*Description

This is an opportunity not to be missed if you want to discover effortlessly the natural beauty of the backwaters of Kerala, sailing calmly along the waters of the lagoon, perhaps with a nice cool drink in hand.

What we will see

- Alappuzha
- Cruise on a houseboat
- The region's lagoon, lakes and canals

What we will do

- After leaving Kochi, we travel by coach to Alappuzha, previously known as Alleppey, dubbed the Venice of the East thanks to its beautiful lagoon.
- Once we arrive, we board a houseboat, a genuine "floating house" with a comfortable bedroom, bathroom, fully furnished lounge and balcony at the bow and a tailor-made kitchen at the stern.
- The team, made up of the cook, the captain and the helmsman, will greet us with a cold drink.
- We sail along the region's lagoon, lakes and narrow canals on a timeless journey to discover the local way of life in the nearby districts.
- The coach transfer from Kochi to Alappuzha will take around an hour and a half.
- The cruise will last approximately 2 hours.
- The excursion duration may vary depending on traffic conditions.
- You are advised to have a substantial breakfast as we will not return to the ship until the afternoon. The buffet will still be open when we return.
- The boats are not air conditioned.

- The boats' capacity can vary according to availability and the number of bookings.

Cochin
BACKWATERS CRUISE - FULL DAY
Description

An unmissable opportunity to discover the natural beauty of the backwaters of Kerala in total comfort, sailing peacefully along the glistening canals with abundant tropical vegetation and observing the rural customs of Kerala.

What we will see

- Alappuzha
- Cruise on the backwaters
- Tropical vegetation
- Activities of the village residents
- Typical lunch

What we will do

- From Kochi we take the coach towards Alappuzha, previously known as Alleppey, making a brief stop on the way.
- We arrive in Alappuzha, situated in a dense network of leafy tropical canals, and board the boat for an idyllic journey along the so-called backwaters, rivers, lakes and canals that connect the coast to the southern interior part of Kochi. For centuries these canals have been a secure, efficient mode of transport for goods and people moving from the interior to the coastal towns.
- We enjoy a delicious welcome drink and, in the comfort of our boat, we will sail along the glistening canals with abundant tropical vegetation, admiring the majestic forests, lagoons and the outskirts of the city dotted with palm trees.
- We also see the village residents bathing and washing their clothes, and the livestock on the riverbank.
- Having feasted our eyes on so much beauty, we will now also indulge our palates with a typical lunch served on board, before returning to the ship by coach.
- The coach transfer from Kochi to Alappuzha will take around an hour and a half.
- The cruise will last approximately 4 hours.
- The excursion duration may vary depending on traffic conditions.
- You are advised to have a substantial breakfast as we will not return to the ship until the afternoon. The buffet will still be open when we return.

- The boats are not air conditioned.
- The boats' capacity can vary according to availability and the number of bookings.
- The lunch consists of typical Indian dishes with spices.

- A welcome drink (mango juice) and water with the meal are included in the cruise.

- We inform our guests that buses do not meet the European standards: they are small, without microphone and air conditioning. Adverse traffic conditions could alter the duration of the excursion. The streets may not be tarred.

WHITE GOLD: THE HIDDEN PARADISE OF CINNAMON ISLAND DHONVELI (afternoon)
Description

A unique opportunity to relax in a setting that embodies the very essence of the Maldives; white sand beaches and the beautiful crystal clear waters of the lagoon. The Cinnamon Island Dhonveli Resort is a wonderful establishment located on an island full of charming corners and surrounded by rich tropical vegetation.

What we will see

- Malé: transfer by speed boat
- Cinnamon Island Dhonveli Resort: welcome cocktail (non-alcoholic), beach, pool, sea

What we will do

- Our excursion begins in Malé. There we board a speed boat and head for the Cinnamon Island Dhonveli Resort, just 13 km away. It is one of the many local accommodation establishments that, thanks to the "one island, one resort" policy, occupy an entire island in the Maldives.
- With a bit of luck, on our way we might spot some dolphins that are increasingly common in this region.
- Upon arrival at the island, we are welcomed to the resort with a non-alcoholic cocktail, an excellent opportunity for a toast to our brief but unforgettable stay on the island, the wonders of which we can explore in a few hours.
- During our visit we can enjoy the beach around the resort or relax in the shade of the trees by the pool. MESMERIZING BLUES: THE HIDDEN PARADISE OF THE BANDOS ISLAND RESORT (afternoon)
Description

A unique opportunity to relax in a setting that embodies the very essence of the Maldives; white sand beaches and crystal clear waters. The Bandos Island Resort is a wonderful establishment located on a private island full of charming corners and surrounded by rich tropical vegetation. It is one of more than a hundred Maldivian islands to be entirely run by a single resort, as a result of the one island, one resort policy.

What we will see

- Malé: transfer by traditional local boat
- Bandos Island Resort: tropical vegetation, white sand beaches, crystal clear waters

What we will do

- Our excursion begins in Malé. From the capital, we board a traditional local boat (a dhoni) for a crossing of approximately 45 minutes to the stunning Bandos Island Resort, just 6 km away in the North Malé atoll. The resort was opened in 1972 and is currently owned by the country's vice president.
- Once at our destination, we can enjoy plenty of free time to explore the island and its most charming corners, characterised by tropical plants and palm trees, flanked by its famous white sand beaches.

- During our stay, we are free to explore the beaches that surround the resort. A day at the Bandos Island Resort is a unique experience as it is the establishment's mission to celebrate and preserve in the best way possible the beauty of the natural environment that surrounds it. The sea surrounding the island offers an incredible spectacle, with stunning shades of blue that merge together where the lagoon meets the ocean, at the edge of the coral reef.
- After approximately three hours on the island we return to Malé, where our tender awaits us to take us back to the ship, anchored just five minutes away.

Places on this excursion are limited. We recommend booking early to avoid disappointment. Do not forget to bring swimwear, a towel, sunglasses and sun cream. This excursion does not include the services of a guide. Transfer from the ship to the jetty takes approx. 10 minutes by motor boat. Transfer from the jetty to the island takes approx. 30-45 minutes by traditional local boat. This excursion is not recommended to individuals who suffer from sea sickness or who have mobility problems or back problems, and to pregnant women. Use of the pool is not allowed. SUBMARINE EXPEDITION IN THE MALDIVES AM

Description

A tour for our more adventurous guests who want to explore the beauty of the Maldives seabed aboard a unique submarine. An unmissable opportunity to get a close-up view of the region's marine flora and fauna, rich in coral as well as yellow-striped king snapper, scorpion fish, yellow boxfish and sea turtles

What we will see

- Malé: transfer by traditional local boat
- Submarine tour down to a depth of 40 metres: tropical coral and fish

What we will do

- Our excursion begins in Malé. From the capital, we board a traditional local boat (a dhoni) for a crossing of approximately 15 minutes to the submarine platform.
- We then board the largest tourist submarine in existence, that has logged more than 3,000 immersions.
- Once on board, we can admire the wonders of the Maldives seabed, going down to a depth of approximately 40 metres.
- During the descent, we make a stop at 25 meters to observe the multicoloured coral and tropical fish in comfort from inside our cool cabin.
- After this extraordinary adventure, we board our dhoni again for our return journey to Malé.

Places on this excursion are limited. We recommend booking early to avoid disappointment. This excursion does not include the services of a guide. Your submarine immersion lasts approx. 40 minutes. Minimum height: 90 cm. Minimum age: 4. Flash photography is not permitted inside the submarine. Transfer from the ship to the jetty takes approx. 10 minutes by motor boat. Transfer from the jetty to the submarine takes approx. 15-30 minutes by speedboat or traditional local boat. This excursion is not recommended for individuals who suffer from sea sickness or who have mobility problems or back problems.

PRACTICAL GUIDE TO EXCURSIONS

Booking excursions

You can book your excursions before departure at www.mycosta.it by registering and filling in the online form or, on board, by using the interactive TV system from the comfort of your own cabin or by visiting the Excursions Totem (services only available on board selected ships), or at any stage during your holiday by dropping off a completed Tour Order Form in the drop box located in the main hall of the ship. Excursions Office staff will be happy to offer you advice and assistance.

Number of participants

Some excursions require a minimum number of bookings and/or a maximum number of participants. These excursions are available on a first come first served basis, so it is advisable to book them well in advance.

Duration

The stated duration of excursions is subject to change without prior notice and can vary due to unforeseen circumstances, such as adverse weather conditions and/or transport delays. The order of certain visits may also be changed for the abovementioned reasons. You are therefore kindly asked to respect the times announced by the tour guides (stops for food, stops to take photographs, etc.).

Description

The descriptions of excursions are correct at time of publication of this document. In an effort to offer you the highest quality excursions program, in some cases the descriptions may vary slightly from the excursions themselves.

Guests with limited mobility

Please contact our onboard staff the day before your cruise. They will advise you and try to obtain the necessary equipment for your on-shore excursion.

Personalised programs

Private cars, limousines or exclusive visits can be arranged upon request on day of departure by contacting the Excursions Office.

Prices

The prices of excursions include transport available on site, which might include coach, limousine, taxi, funicular railways or boats. Meals and/or drinks are included only when specified in the itinerary of the excursion. Costa Cruises reserves the right to change the prices and itineraries of excursions without prior notice.

Children and kids

Children between the ages of 3 and 13 are entitled to a 30% discount for excursions on cruises in the Mediterranean and Northern Europe, 25% for cruises in South America and Transatlantic cruises from/to South America, and 10% for cruises to the Caribbean and Transatlantic cruises from/to the Caribbean.

There is no charge for children up to the age of 3 provided that parents carry them during transportation.

Squok Club

Children between the ages of 3 and 12 can have fun at the Squok Club while their parents enjoy their excursion. The service is free, but must be requested in advance.
